OUR HISTORY

The Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum Hall of Fame was established on October 24th 1998, as a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization dedicated to recognizing the contributions of Hispanic players in baseball. The Museum Hall of Fame will ensure the history and profound influence that Hispanic players have made on the great game of baseball.

The Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum Hall of Fame will share with visitors the true meaning of diversity, while enlightening future generations on the vast Hispanic culture.

Wholesome role models are rare in today's society. Our youth desperately seeks hope and direction, the Museum Hall of Fame offers a unique opportunity to provide inspiration while creating a great legacy with vision towards our future.

ABOUT US

Presently The Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum Hall of Fame is a National Traveling Museum Hall of Fame. A treasure with visions and mission to eventually have a permanent address in the United States, currently based in San Francisco, California.

The Museum Hall of Fame has conducted exhibitions to include inductions and the presentation of awards all over the U.S. in Baseball Stadiums, both Major League and Minor League Stadiums to include Colleges, Libraries, and Museums. Most recently, 2012-2013, at Yankee Stadium with the Latino Living Legends exhibition in the New York Yankees Museum.

You have a unique opportunity with accomplishing the goal of a permanent Museum Hall of Fame address for future generations. Simply commit your financial support by pledging monthly, annually, or a one-time gift.

Choose a dollar amount that you are most comfortable with. We are a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization, which permits you the luxury of a one-hundred percent write off for your generous gifts and donations!
